e=mc² BRINGS ITS WINNING EVENT FORMULA TO VANCOUVER

Vancouver, BC – on June 6th Calgary-based e=mc² event management inc. launches its Vancouver office. e=mc², headquartered in Calgary, AB, is embracing the opportunities in the West Coast and is excited to expand and introduce fresh concepts and seamless event experiences to the Vancouver market.

“As we are celebrating our 10 year anniversary this year we have many exciting initiatives ahead” says Jocelyn Flanagan, President and CEO of e=mc². “We see a positive future and our expansion into the Vancouver market is a natural step in the company’s continuing nation-wide growth”.

Leading the Vancouver office are e=mc² Director, Conference Production, Joann Chatterton and former Vancouver-based MVKA Productions’ senior team members, Jean Pierre Cartier and Tony Talarico. e=mc² recently engaged Jean Pierre and Tony based on their extensive experience, established local partnerships and thorough knowledge of the Vancouver market. “We are incredibly excited to extend the dynamic energy of e=mc² to Vancouver and offer new perspectives on event services,” says Jean Pierre Cartier, Director, Business Development for e=mc².

Martin A.J. van Keken jr., CEO of MVKA, commented on the e=mc² Vancouver launch, “I congratulate e=mc², Jean Pierre and Tony for choosing to come together and work under the e=mc² umbrella. I respect e=mc²’s professionalism and admire the experience and knowledge that Tony and Jean Pierre will bring to e=mc².”

“We will continue to introduce new and innovative ways to add value to our Vancouver clients’ experience and deliver unsurpassed, efficient, streamlined operations” says Tony Talarico, Event Producer, e=mc².
